

Children and Young Persons Community Support Worker

Roles available in: Bury

Could you make a real difference to the lives of carers in your local community? Then this could be the role for you!

Carers Trust 4all are a charitable organisation who provide information, advice and support to anyone living with the challenges of caring, unpaid for a family member or friend.

As a Community Support Worker, you will provide cover to enable carers to take a much-needed break, by caring for their loved one.

We work with children and young people who have a short or long-term illness, a disability or are approaching end of life, meaning no two days are the same.

Carer breaks can vary greatly, meaning you get to meet some amazing people and quite often support outings and activities that you will enjoy too.

Would you like to get paid to do amazing things?
